

Dru is a graduate of SIU-Carbondale's Commercial Graphics program. She has over 27 years of creative experience in both the private and public sector. While being an accomplished designer, she truly enjoys getting to know her clients and working with them to market their programs and products. Dru considers herself fortunate to love what she does for a profession. She spends her spare time with her husband and sons camping and renovating their victorian home.

DHS-DRS
Empowering
PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

